The perfect place

welcome to LIVONIA MICHIGAN

Every day Livonia lives up to its city motto of "Families First." Whether the city is visited for a short time or lived in for years, discerning folks have to agree: Livonia is a great place to LIVE, Learn, WORK & PLAY!

CENTRALLY LOCATED

With a population of nearly 96,000, Livonia is the tenth largest city in Michigan and third largest in Wayne County, which is the state's largest county. At 36 square miles, Livonia has the seventh largest land area among Michigan cities.

Livonia, located in the northwest corner of Wayne County, is halfway between Detroit and Ann Arbor. Livonia's location is convenient with access east to west on the Jeffries Expressway (Interstate 96), the Interstate 275 expressway flowing north to south and additional access to major highways and interstates passing through in all directions. Livonia is conveniently located within 30 minutes of just about all major metro Detroit destinations, including Detroit Metropolitan Airport, the Detroit Zoo, the sports stadiums and theaters in downtown Detroit, University of Michigan, Greenfield Village and Henry Ford Museum and several major employment centers in southeastern Michigan.

LIVONIA'S AWARDS

- Home to award-winning, state-of-the-art 130,000 sq. ft. Jack E. Kirksey Recreation Center
- Rated among the nation's Top-10 Happiest Mid-Sized Cities
- Convenient access to all major Detroit-area freeways and Detroit Metropolitan Airport
- Ranked nationally as one of the top 25 locations for manufacturing businesses
- 10th largest city in Michigan
- 2nd lowest tax rate of any city in Wayne County, the state's largest county
- Largest industrial marketing area in suburban Detroit, at 32 million square feet
- Ranked in the Top 50 Best Places to Raise a Family in the U.S.
- All major surface streets designed as five lanes to avoid gridlock
- 1,400 acres set aside for recreational purposes
- Three public golf courses, two indoor ice arenas, three outdoor swimming pools
